Dreams Closet Trading is a garment trading company, established in the year 2000 by Mr. Rajesh Kumar Sood. The company manufactures Men’s Wear Garments in India and continues it procurement process in the local market too. The Company has its brand registered with the government of United Arab Emirates, in the name of “DCT”. DCT products have the highest standards in terms of its quality, persistence and presentation.

DCT products such as P.K. Polo and Round Neck T-shirts are widely accepted in corporate companies serving all kinds of Global Business Sectors such as: hotels, banking, healthcare, security and many types of government campaigns. This in turn has brought trust with confidence in our customers locally as well as in the international market. Other products such as fancy garments and men’s innerwear have also gained similar response from our customers.

The company carries and maintains its core values of integrity, co-operation, consistency and quality in all its dealings. Importing from India and Exporting goods to various countries across the globe has always been in favour of the company. We have regular and growing number of customers in South Africa, Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Oman and other Middle East countries on regular basis. Apart from our Exports, our company is also able to meet the desires of the local market, with great styles of tremendous variety and high quality.

Management

Mr. Rajesh Kumar Sood is the Managing partner of Dreams Closet Trading since its incorporation in the year 2000. He has an experience of over 35 years in the garment industry of manufacturing as well as trading. The company has grown in is able leadership. In addition, Mr. Sahil joined the family business in 2013 to tap and explore the potential areas of garment industry taking DCT to the next level.